President's Message

Welcome to the Orange County Children's Theatre's spring production of Beauty and the Beast. The talented kids who will be performing have put in countless hours rehearsing in order to put on the Disney Classic Beauty and the Beast. This is a story about Belle, a girl who is dissatisfied with life in a small provincial French town, constantly trying to fend off the misplaced "affections" of conceited Gaston. The Beast is a prince who was placed under a spell because he could not love. A wrong turn taken by Maurice, Belle's father, causes the two to meet...

Orange County Children's Theatre was founded in 1969 with the mission to provide opportunities and instruction in theatre arts to children and families throughout Orange County but our organization provides so much more than that. OCCT is a safe place where all of our children are able to create and express themselves through singing, dancing and acting. The children also learn other life skills such as team work, work ethic, being kind and treating others as they would want to be treated. These actors work hard on their individual roles, but come together as they all have one common goal and that is to put on the best show.

OCCT boasts the most selfless group of parents who volunteer hours and hours structuring the building blocks for our shows. These parents create state of the art sets that would rival any professional adult production. The costumes pop on stage with their richness in color and detail. The props are often hand-made or our prop master spends hours rummaging through vintage stores to get the perfect piece. This is all done by the parents of these amazing children. They do this so our children are able to tell their story within the most creative space possible.

A special thanks to our directors Diane Christensen, Jeremy Cooley, Terri Wilson, and Julie Matthews. We are thrilled to have your knowledge, expertise and creative energies in this production. Thank you to our Producer Elisa Villalobos for keeping everyone sane and the kids in line. Thanks to our executive and administrative board for your "wearing different hats" capabilities. A special thanks to our wonderful Vice President who oversees all of our OCCT productions. Last and certainly not least... All of the parents and volunteers for whose hard work and dedication is the backbone of OCCT.

As the president of this organization, I feel humbled to be around the best and most creative group of people, parents and children alike. I would like to thank you for taking time off your busy schedules to allow us the gift of being able to create something that brings joy to you and your families. Also, I would personally like to invite you to get involved and help preserve the rare and special gift that is OCCT. We look forward to welcoming you into our family. Now sit back, relax and let us take you to a little corner of a provincial town in France.

Thank you,
Lulie Kushner

Diane Christensen- Director

Mrs. "C" got her first taste of theater in the seventh grade when she co-directed an act for the talent assembly. Since then, her work has been seen at the Rose Bowl, Knott's Berry Farm, Anaheim Hilton and various theaters throughout Southern California. She has taught commercial and film acting in Burbank and Orange County. She is the director of musicals for Edison High School and has been a member of the Cultural Arts Committee for the Huntington Beach LDS Church. She is delighted to have joined forces with the talents of Terri Wilson, Julie Matthews and Jeremy Cooley. What skills they have brought to this production! Mrs. Christensen thanks producer Elisa Villalobos and the OCCT Board for their support and hard work. She is grateful for the commitment to excellence by them and by the talented, supportive parents of these TERRIFIC cast members. "I hope that each of us will seek to find the beauty in others and in ourselves."

Terri Wilson - Vocal Director

Terri has had a great experience working with OCCT as we prepared to perform the musical, Beauty and the Beast. It is always a pleasure to associate with the talented actors, directors, and parents who are a part of this wonderful children's theater! What a fantastic organization that is so well organized with dedicated, caring volunteers. It has been a pleasure to work with and learn from all of you. The performing arts have been a major part of Terri's life for many years. She has been involved with directing, serving as musical director, and producing various musicals for Sowers Middle School for the past 10 years. Some of her favorites included, Music Man, Beauty and the Beast, Joseph and the Technicolor Dream Coat, and The Sound of Music. Before retiring, she also directed the bands and choirs at Sowers Middle School for the past 20 years. Terri was privileged to assist with OCCT's production of Mary Poppins last summer, and in February she just finished helping as vocal director for Peter Pan with a local theater company. She really enjoys participating and helping with efforts in the arts. A huge shout out to a very talented OCCT Beauty and the Beast cast, and the amazing, creative direction of Diane Christensen, Jeremy Cooley, and of course the exceptional choreography created and taught by Julie Matthews. Best of luck to this talented, remarkable cast!!

Jeremy Cooley - Assistant Director

Jeremy Cooley is thrilled to be making his debut with Orange County Children's Theatre! Recent credits include directing, producing, and acting in The Last Five Years with his company, Southern California Independent Theatre, as well as directing the premiere of a local composer's operetta, The Inferiority Complex of Old Sippy, in collaboration with Southern California Independent Theatre and the Four Seasons Youth Orchestra. He holds a Bachelor of Music in Percussion Performance from California State University, Long Beach, and is close to completing a Master of Arts in English and a Single Subject Credential in English from Long Beach as well. During the day, he works as a substitute teacher in multiple school districts in the Los Angeles and Orange County areas.

Julie Matthews - Choreographer

Miss Julie wears different theater hats and enjoys them all. Her choreographer history began as a teen when she earned a spot on a competition clogging team which eventually transitioned to other forms of dance and becoming a member of the top performing group of the US and World Champion BYU Ballroom Team. Miss Julie has choreographed all styles of dance, including a previous production of Cinderella and Mary Poppins for OCCT. Her music director skills began forming at age 5 with piano lessons which continued into her high school years. During college, she was the accompanist for two professional vocal teachers which led to her accompanying and vocal directing church choirs and musical reviews. Her vocal experience includes performing lead roles in Wizard of Oz, Seven Brides for Seven Brothers, The Sound of Music and more. She states that this theater group has some of the nicest parents and children she has yet to meet. It has been one of the best experiences in her theater career to work with them.

Telegrammers

Clara D'Autilia - Teleg. Choreographer

Miss Clara began training at age three at Ballet Arts Center. She continued her studies in ballet, jazz, modern history of dance, choreography, and musical theater for five years in Argentina. In college she furthered her Musical Theater training as a performer and choreographer in musicals, years later obtaining her Liberal Arts & Fine Arts degrees. Currently she is the owner/director of Pacific Dance Center and co-founder of Coast City Ballet, a non-profit dance company. She is a Dance Coach at Edison High School, and has choreographed several musicals there. She also choreographed OCCT's productions of Into the Woods and

Alice and Wonderland, was Telegrammer Choreographer for Grease, and now is delighted to work with the Telegrammers again in Beauty and the Beast.

Abby Young - Assistant Teleg. Choreographer

Welcome to OCCT's production of Beauty and the Beast! I am so excited and thankful to be working with Miss Clara and all the telegrammers. We have had a blast teaching them the songs and dances, and they can't wait to perform for everyone! I have been with OCCT for about 6 years now, and I have loved every minute of it. My first show was Grease in 2008, and I, too, was a telegrammer. I am now 14 years old and have performed in 15 musicals with OCCT. Now, I am thrilled to be back working with the telegrammers. Please sit back, relax, and enjoy the show - and buy a telegram for your friends and family in the cast!
